

Proposal 06-01 (P.R. 0147)
Creates New Rule 109
Offered by the Supreme Court Rules Committee

New Rule 109. Service of Rules and Orders on Non-Parties; Attachments

A rule to show cause why a non-party should not be held in contempt of court or an order entered by a court of competent jurisdiction shall be served upon a non-party to the pending action in the same manner as service of summons as provided in Rule 102. No attachment of a non-party shall issue without proof of prior service of the rule or order.
